Hiring or Hosting Foreign Nationals
Who is a Foreign National?

Who they are NOT!

- NOT United States citizen
- NOT permanent resident of the United States (aka “green card” holder)

May also be called...

- Non-Resident alien
- Non-immigrant
- Nonresident alien
How To Identify a Foreign National

Can you go by ???

• NAME
• LOOK
• ACCENT

Indicators you CAN go by

• They tell you they just ARRIVED in the U.S.
• They mark the 2ND OR 4th box on their I-9
• They DO NOT have a Social Security Card
• They have a Social Security Card with the work restriction clause
• They show you a Passport from another country
What does a Social Security Card Look Like for a Foreign National?

If someone is not a U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident and they submit to you a Social Security Card, it will ALWAYS have a restrictive clause on the top which says:

"Valid for Work Only With DHS Authorization"
Social Security Card of Non U.S. Citizen

What Departments Do...

Send Human Resources names and email addresses for all prospective NRA employees.

Once Human Resources sets up the SUNE, we will send departments the employee ID.

Departments will set up the PACT or Hourly Rate.

Departments will provide F1 & J1 Students with a letter of employment to apply for the Social Security Card. Template is on ISS Website.
Some things NOT to do...

Do not send the prospective employee to the Social Security office

Do not have the employee call our office – have department admin e-mail Nonresident Coordinator

Do not have employee come to our office without an appointment

Do NOT do the Payroll paperwork (I-9 and W-4 HAVE to be filled out a certain way)

- If here as an H-1B employee
- If here as a J-1 exchange visitor
- If here in another status
- Always check first!!!
What About "Volunteering"?

➢ Proceed with caution!
➢ Must be bona fide volunteer position
➢ May not volunteer to "hold" position while OPT, H-1B, etc. is in process
➢ Documentation is important
SCENARIOS

Here are a few scenarios to see what you would do in these situations.

Eutopia University is hosting a conference on their campus. They have invited an F-1 student from a neighboring state attending another university. This F-1 student has written a research paper on the topic being discussed at the conference at Eutopia. The department hosting the conference at Eutopia wishes to pay the F-1 student an honorarium in the amount of $500. They have done a requisition through their Accounts Payable department and the check will be ready when the conference begins. Is this permissible?
A J-1 Scholar has been hired by HSN Department at Eutopia University. The J-1 Scholar has her spouse with her who has a Social Security Card and a Driver’s License. Can J-1 Scholar’s spouse who is here as a J-2 dependent work at the university since he has a social and a driver’s license for list B and list C on the I-9?
Your Department has hired a new F-1 Graduate Assistant. The F-1 GA has brought his wife as an F-2 dependent and the you wish to hire her to perform some grading and pay her Unit Pay. Can your department hire the F-2 dependent and can you pay her by unit pay?
The DOGY Department at Eutopia University has invited an H1B Visa holder to speak at the Doggy Training Conference on campus. Will Eutopia University be able to pay this H1B Visa Holder?
